

Easter rush
1 Aunt's map	collect 3 parts
1,1	Nanny (comes to visit): Hello, Emma. Came to remind you that the holidays are coming soon. Do you remember how fun they were, when you were little? Emma: Oh yes! Dog (surprised): Woof? Emma: Yes, honey. I have treasured these memories for all these years. How beautiful everything was: the decoration of the house, the g delicious pastries, fun fair.... Nanny: You are in dire need of positive emotions right now. Let's have a party, shall we? Emma: I agree! Only first you need to find your aunt's plans so that everything is the same as in childhood. Nanny: Karen kept documents in her bureau/wardrobe/kitchen drawer. Need to see. Emma: Go ahead then!	1/3 of the plan
1,2	Emma: Weird, where did the rest go? The dog sees a bear and runs after it. Gets stuck on the chest of drawers. He digs with his paws and throws out various garbage, paper, s Emma: Well, what are you, little one! You are not a cat. Emma gets the Dog. In the teeth the second 1/3 of the plan	1/3 of the plan
1,3	Nanny: What a great detective your Dog is! Emma (throws her hands): You can't argue, thanks to him, we are almost there! But the third part will have to be found on your own. Nanny: Karen loves spending time in the kitchen. Let's eat there. We'll do some cleaning as well. Emma: I agree! It is high time to replace the oven, especially since we are waiting for big pastries!	clean the kitchen replace the oven find behind the oven 1/3 plan glue plan
1,4	Nanny: Hurrah! Now let's put all the parts together and start organizing the Holiday.
2 home decoration	unravel the garland of triangles, find or make wreaths of flowers, mow bushes in the shape of eggs and hares
2,1	Emma: Look, the Plan calls for a garland and wreaths. Nanny: I saw such triangles in the city hall / school. And the wreaths were in Karen's attic/cloakroom. You look in the attic / wardrobe / closet, and I will bring triangles. Emma: Agreed. Nanny leaves. Emma (to the Dog): let's go look in the closet for these decorations! Dog (cheerfully): Woof-woof!	Search in the closet. Find a skein of ribbons
2,2	Emma (thoughtfully): Very interesting! This is still useful to us, but this is not what we need. Let's have some tea and sandwiches Let's get a bush cut. Dog: Wow? Emma: I would like bushes in the shape of pugs, but today only in the shape of bunnies. Dog (offended): woof...	drink tea call the gardener
2,3	(doorbell) Nanny: Emma, I was looking for a garland, but I found only triangles. Emma: Don't worry, I found a whole skein of colored ribbons, with the help of glue we will quickly do everything. I saw him recently in the pharmacy. Nanny (surprised): in the medicine cabinet?	open the door dismantle the first aid kit glue the garland
2,4	(window breaks, gardener's ladder falls into it) Emma: Oh. Nanny: Are you hurt? Gardener(to be continued)	clear the stairs fix the window
